October 2024

Dear Friends,

As I write this in the middle of September the shops are filling up with Christmas cakes & mince pies, but alongside these are Halloween goods. When I was growing up Halloween was barely mentioned & Trick or Treat was something the Americans did. We had Guy Fawkes nights, with fireworks, parties & 'Penny for the Guy'. Whilst Halloween celebrations have become a feature of our culture it has become associated with spooks, ghouls, witches & things that go bump in the night! Yet it is actually a Christian festival, All Hallows' Eve, that is the traditional title for what we now call Halloween.

Halloween has its heart in the Old English word 'hallowed' meaning holy or sanctified. In the Christian tradition it was a day of preparation & fasting prior to celebrating All Saints day. It certainly wasn't associated with pranks, spooks, ghouls & witches but much more about preparing our hearts & minds to remember the Saints & those Christians who had died & joined the Communion of Saints. The festival that followed was deliberately designed to counter some of the superstitions surrounding the old end to summer & the coming of winter - the old Celtic festival of Samhain. Within church history it was only later that the commemoration of the dead, All Souls followed All Saints. It has become today an opportunity to remember loved ones who have passed & to give thanks for lives well led. As Christians we can rejoice that those who die in faith are now at rest & peace with God.

Fasting is not simply about going without food or giving something up, it is primarily about taking something on, it is about giving ourselves space & time to allow God to speak with us & to shape who we are. It also isn't about telling everyone that we are doing it to draw attention to our spiritual well being. Jesus was clear that fasting is something we do quietly & privately. Fasting in biblical terms is also a call to action. Fasting in the scriptures is always for a purpose beyond ourselves for the benefit of others. It is part of the mission of the church that we are called to serve those who we live amongst and to reach out with God's love to our world. Seen through God's eyes fasting is a call to action and mission.

"Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the straps of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover him, ... "

As October brings autumn on & the nights draw in let us not forget to pray, give thanks for loved ones we see no longer & remember that we are called to serve our communities with joy & love.

Pax

Father Owen

The New Weathervane at St George's Church

- In previous numbers of the Parish Magazine we reported on the progress of the new weathervane & spire repairs at Brede Church, part funded by the Friends of St George's & the National Churches Trust.

Blacksmith David Skinner (rt.) receives his certificate from the President of the Sussex Heritage Trust, the Rt. Hon. Lord Egremont

The quality of the work received further recognition when the blacksmith who made the vane, David Skinner, received a Highly Commended certificate at the Sussex Heritage Trust awards, held in Lancing College chapel on 10 July. The award was well deserved : the new vane, commemorating the Platinum Jubilee of the late Queen Elizabeth II. is a much admired feature of the exterior of the church.

Autumn - We thank God for the chance to enjoy the beautiful season of autumn. While some aspects of the season are the source of sadness, we can also remember the bountifulness of the harvest, look at the leaves changing & let the season be a reminder to rejoice for all the blessings we have been given. The changing of seasons is the perfect opportunity to reflect on the past & look forward to the blessings that will come with the next season's beginning. On the autumn equinox, day & night are of equal length. This signals the need to balance light & darkness within us. Far too often, we fear the dark & adore only the light. This story is a wonderful way to understand & accept situations where we are left in the dark without answers

"Once, when the Zen master Tokusan was still a student, he visited his teacher, Ryutan, just before sundown. They sat on the floor of Ryutan's hut, casually drinking tea and discussing Zen until deep into the night. At last, Ryutan said, 'Maybe it's about time you went home.' Tokusan bowed to his teacher and walked to the door. 'It's completely dark outside,' he said. Ryutan lit the lantern and said, 'Why not take this?' Just as Tokusan was about to take the lamp from his teacher's hands, Ryutan blew out the flame. Tokusan suddenly knew everything there was to know."

Sometimes there is no remedy for our situation other than to begin from a point of absolute darkness. Turning off a television set & extinguishing a light have certain similarities; they are both abrupt & transitional & can leave us in a different world. In darkness, we are always on our own. As we watch leaves fluttering to the ground in the fall, we are reminded that nature's cycles are mirrored in our lives. Autumn is a time for letting go & releasing things that have been a burden. Autumn reminds us of the impermanence of everything. We have experienced the budding of life in spring & the flowerings & profusions of summer. Now the leaves fall and bare branches remind us of the fleeting nature of all things.

Trembling, quivering, scarlet and gold.
One last shutter, let go.
Whirl, spin, flurry to death.
Glorious free fall to final rest.
Loamy, earthen, heady bouquet.
Shuffling, whispering, leafy day.
Resonant autumn birdsong.

Yawning time, hours long.
Nippy air, gathered collars warm.
lungs inhaling alarm.
Basking, revelling, in artwork of God.
Flourishing, riotous, last hurrah.
Flourishing, riotous, last hurrah

Brede Luncheon Club - The Lunch Club met at the end of August on a bright, sunny summer's day. I'm sure that many of the conversations around the tables featured holiday experiences & visits abroad, as we tucked into our main course of spaghetti bolognese. The artistically presented banana split dessert was a real hit & I think a 'first' for our Lunch Club! We all offer our thanks to Gary & his team for looking after us so efficiently; especially following the very busy & exhausting Bank Holiday weekend in the Village.

The October Lunch is on, Tuesday 22nd October, (the 4th Tuesday of the month) at 12.30.pm at the 'Red Lion, in Brede.

Brede WI

After a short break it was good to meet with friends again & catch up on news & events at our September meeting. Jennie Drew (joint President) extended a warm welcome to members and our Speaker, Mary Soul.

INSPIRING WOMEN

True to form, the Croquet Tournament for 2024, hosted by Sue McGavin & Marion Brunt, was a great success. The worthy winner of the trophy this year was, Sue McGavin; Elaine Heasman was runner up! Congratulations to them both.

As summer draws to an end, we're looking forward to Autumnal things! Our Autumn/Halloween themed Lunch is on Wednesday 23rd October at Udimore Village Hall.

It was a pleasure to welcome our speaker, Mary Soul, from Little Gate Farm. Mary's talk enlightened us about the, "Little Gate Farm Supported Employment" that helps adults & children with learning difficulties & autism. The training programmes in place at the Farm teach the young adults new work skills with a view to being in paid work. Always supported by highly trained job coaches at the Farm & in the work place, there are opportunities in a variety of occupations, including, catering, animal care & horticulture.

Little Gate also operates Young Rangers & Teen Rangers for children 8-18 years. A wide range of fun activities around the Farm & woodland, help children to communicate, form friendships & gain in confidence. Two short videos, clearly illustrated the amazing work & the achievements gained at Little Gate Farm. In providing a safe & stimulating learning environment for children & young adults, they are able to succeed & gain in both confidence & independence. Joy Wild gave the vote of thanks.

The ACWW Competition: A school item, was won by Louise Hull.

Our next meeting on Wednesday 9th October at 2.00 pm in Brede Village Hall, is an Open Meeting & friends & family members are welcome to join us! Gardner Crawley will be visiting to talk about the Rother Valley Steam Railway.

The ACWW competition: Something Pink. (October is Breast Cancer Awareness Week)

Autumn is the season of harvest and preparation for the winter ahead. Foods that are abundant in autumn are cozy, comforting, warming & nourishing. This is a delicious easy pumpkin soup where the pumpkin becomes the bowl.

Pumpkin Soup with Gruyère and fried sage

Serves 4 – 6 , Oven to 180°C/fan oven 160°C/mark 4.

1 x 2kg iron bark, blue hubbard or onion squash, or similar pumpkin

300ml double cream, plus a little extra if needed

50ml vegetable or chicken stock

1tbsp finely chopped sage

3 garlic cloves, crushed with salt

100g Gruyère or Cheddar

12 large sage leaves

2tbsp olive oil

100g Parmesan, or extra Gruyère, freshly grated

To serve

Green salad and crusty bread

Wash the pumpkin & cut off the top third (keep the stalk attached to the lid). With a strong spoon, scoop out the seeds & discard. Continue to scoop out some of the flesh so about one third has been removed. Chop this roughly & place in a pan with the cream, stock, chopped sage & garlic. Season with salt & pepper & bring gently to the boil.

Fold two 30cm strips of aluminium foil in half lengthways. Place them in a cross in a deep roasting pan that will hold the pumpkin snugly. Place the pumpkin in the centre of the cross. Carefully pour the hot cream mixture into the pumpkin & put the lid on top. Draw the foil up and secure the pumpkin and lid by folding the ends together. Put in the oven and bake for 1 hour or until tender (different varieties of pumpkin will need different times). Test with a skewer in the flesh under the lid (not the side). When it feels tender, remove from the oven, take the lid off carefully, sprinkle in the Gruyère cheese & a little extra cream if needed - it should be half full. Return to the oven with the lid to one side & continue to bake for 5-7 minutes, until the cheese starts to melt & becomes stringy.

In a small frying pan, fry the sage leaves in the olive oil until they sizzle & become crisp - this takes seconds. Remove & drain on kitchen paper & sprinkle with salt.

Use the foil to lift the pumpkin carefully out of the roasting pan, place it into a warm serving bowl, slide away the foil & serve by scooping the sides of the pumpkin 'bowl' and lid together with the cream filling onto individual plates or bowls. Scatter with the grated Parmesan and sage leaves & serve with a salad & warm bread.

Wednesday 16th October 2024, 7.00 FOR 7.30 p.m.

Do not attempt this walk today!

John Crook continues his photographic exploration of Brede between the 1880s and the 1960s, taking us on a stroll through the village & recalling some of the characters from those distant days. Dr Crook (www.john-crook.com) was born in Brede where he now lives. He is an architectural historian & archaeological consultant & has published many books on a variety of historical subjects, both as author & photographer.

Peasmarsh & District Ladies Choir

The Peasmarsh & District Ladies' Choir has sadly lost the services of its accompanist. With two up-coming performances we are badly in need of a pianist! The choir usually meets at 7.00p.m on Tuesday evenings at Trinity Methodist Church, Broad Oak. If anyone is able to help us in any way, please contact Lois Benton on 01797223728.

On Saturday 12th October the Choir will be taking part in the Big Sing at St. Johns' Church, Brittany Road, St. Leonards on Sea, raising money for St. Michael's Hospice. The Choir will open the day performing from 10.30am to 10.55am. This is a cause close to many people's hearts in this area - few living locally have not been touched by someone who has received their care. All donations would be welcome - and do come along and listen to us sing! The choir are also preparing to lead the congregation in Christmas Carols at Beckley Church, 3pm on 8th December. More details in due course. And on Saturday 14th December the choir will be singing Carols to the residents of Peasmarsh Place.

COVID - Back in the Day - My Grandmother had a life threatening reaction to medicine once & from her hospital bed, looked to my Mum & said "sorry to grizzle". My Mum wrote a sign "Go ahead, grizzle!" & stuck it up in her hospital room. The sign came home with her when she recovered & those words have stayed with me. I feel like we may need a little permission to grizzle at the moment. Not for the big things, but the little. There are so many worse off, there's so much at stake, things could be worse, we are so lucky in the scheme of things and bla bla...But this morning, I say, go ahead, grizzle!

For the cancelled holidays, the changed plans. For the missed job opportunities, the lost income. For the circuit breaker you won't get. The guests you won't now welcome. For the reunion you won't attend. The Gap year you'll probably never have. For the grandchildren you thought you'd see or the new babies you thought you'd meet. For the uncertainty. The inertia. The time you'll now spend googling craft ideas.

For the last 18 months, the last few days, the next two weeks. Decision makers, business owners, casual employees, backpackers, singles, mothers, fathers, teenagers, grandparents... Go ahead, grizzle!
